Name _____ Date _____

Pretend shop: price tags

For the grown-up: cut out the price tags and put them on real toys or snacks. Students take turns as the shopkeeper and the shopper.

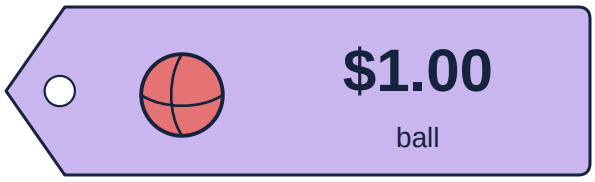

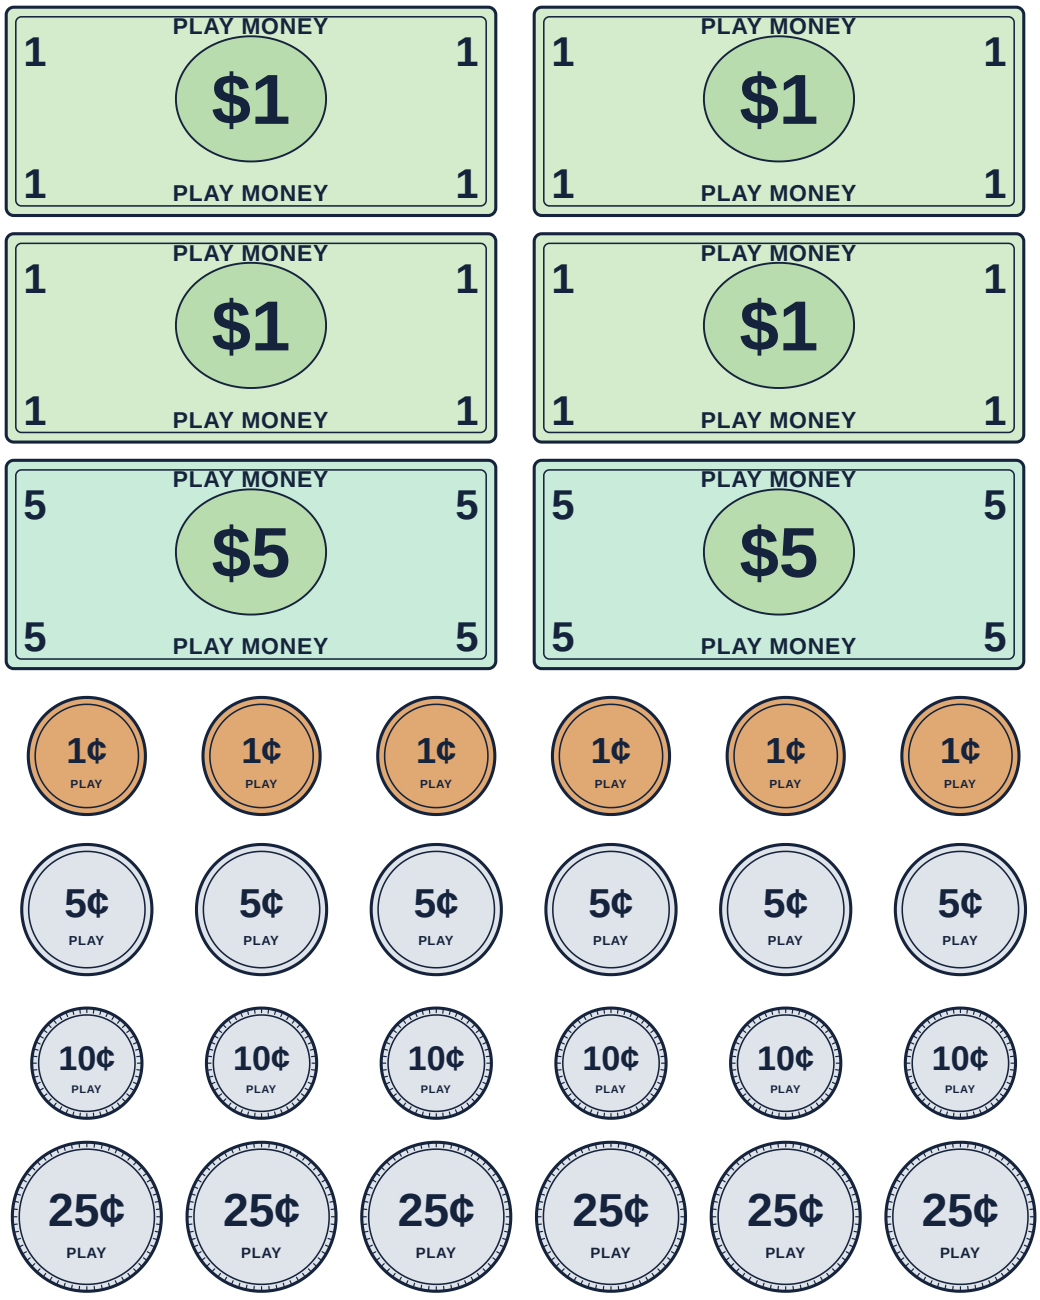

Name _____ Date _____

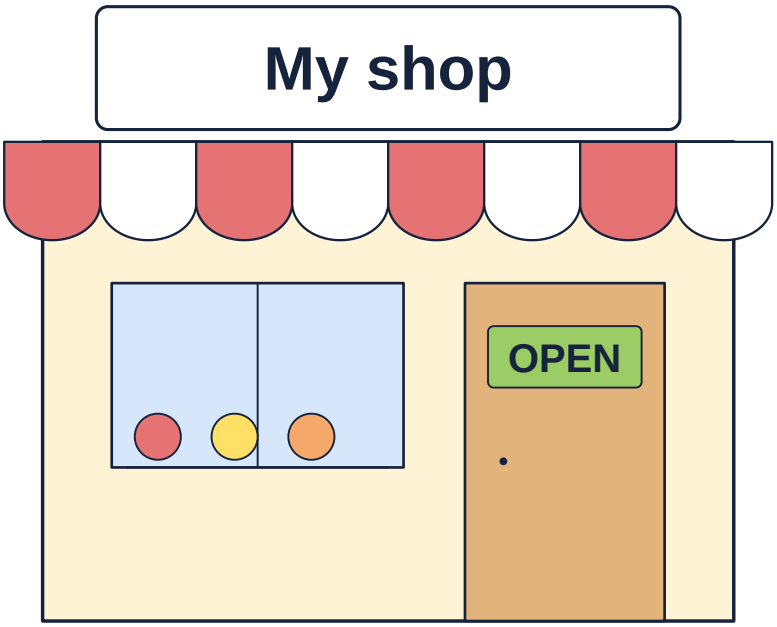

Pretend shop: play money

Cut out the play money. Bills and coins say play money, so they are never mistaken for real money.

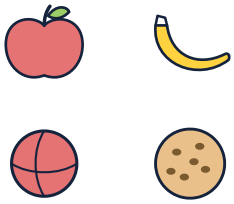

Name _____ Date _____

Pretend shop: my shop sign and shop math

Shopkeeper _____

Shop math

1. You buy the apple and the banana. How much in all?

_____

2. You buy the ball and the juice. How much in all?

_____

3. You have 25¢. Can you buy the cookie?

_____

4. You buy two pencils. How much?

_____

Name _____ Date _____

Answer key: shop math

1. You buy the apple and the banana. How much in all?

35¢

2. You buy the ball and the juice. How much in all?

$1.25

3. You have 25¢. Can you buy the cookie?

No. The cookie costs 50¢.

4. You buy two pencils. How much?

10¢

	pencil	5¢
	banana	10¢
	apple	25¢
	juice	25¢
	cookie	50¢
	ball	$1.00
	book	$2.00
	toy	$5.00